SOS (Save on Summer)

Ten Summer Finds for Under $10

It's not fair that summer Fridays come only once a week. So we scoured the city for ten things to brighten your days, all less than ten bucks.

1. A day in the sun has left you a little spicy. Sweeten up your stink with an $8 bar of saltwater soap by Saipua \(Shake the Tree\), 67 Salem Street, North End;

617-742-0484). MAP IT

2. Everyone may look better with a tan, but fried hair is not hot. Quench sizzled summer tresses with the $10 Moroccan oil deep-conditioning treatment at Mizu (776 Boylston Street; 617-585-6498). MAP IT

3. Malibu Barbie had a full-on mullet after you gave her fringe a snip. Let the experts take care of your split ends with a bang trim at The Loft Salon + Day Spa (207 Newbury Street; 617-536-5638). No appointment necessary, and it's only $5 for nonclients.

4. A tart frozen yogurt from just-opened Boyo (175 Cambridge Street; 617-227-2696) may be the perfect cool-down snack. Get the tangy treat with three toppings for $5.75. MAP IT

5. Take a stroll through the Copley Square Farmers Market (the season kicks off today) and pick up a bundle of locally grown asparagus or bite into a fresh-baked cookie. The sights and smells of summer are priceless.

6. Soon you'll be sweating it out at bug-infested barbecues. For now, you can indulge in two veal and ricotta meatball sliders for
